

BLUE LAUREL YOGA

Every day, more Americans are discovering the benefits of yoga for physical, emotional, and spiritual well-being. Experience the joys of yoga this fall, when Oxford's vibrant new Blue Laurel Yoga opens in the beautiful University Museum. Betsy Banner, Ann Fisher-Wirth, and Jennie Lee, Blue Laurel's co-owners and teachers, will offer three series of gentle/beginners' classes, starting in October and continuing through mid-November. Each series will meet twice a week over six weeks, for a total of twelve classes. Participants of all ages and all degrees of experience with yoga are heartily welcome. Wear loose-fitting clothing and bring a yoga mat if you have one; we will have some extras, as well.

Betsy's classes (A) will meet 8:30 to 9:30 on Monday, and 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday.

Jennie's classes (B) will meet 10:00 to 11:00 on Monday, and 8:30 to 9:30 on Thursday.

Ann's classes (C) will meet 8:30 to 9:30 on Tuesday, and 8:30 to 9:30 on Friday.

Betsy, Ann, and Jennie are all certified through the 200-hour Hatha/Vinyasa Teacher Certification program at Southern Star Yoga Studio and are all registered yoga teachers (RYT) with Yoga Alliance.

Liability Waiver

Yoga is an individual experience. Participation in yoga class includes, but is not limited to: participation in meditation techniques, yogic breathing exercises (pranayama), and performing various yoga postures. Yoga postures, or asanas, are designed to exercise every part of the body—stretching and toning the muscles and joints, the spine, and the entire skeletal system. They also work on the internal organs, glands, and nerves. Yoga incorporates sustained stretching to strengthen muscles and increase flexibility.
